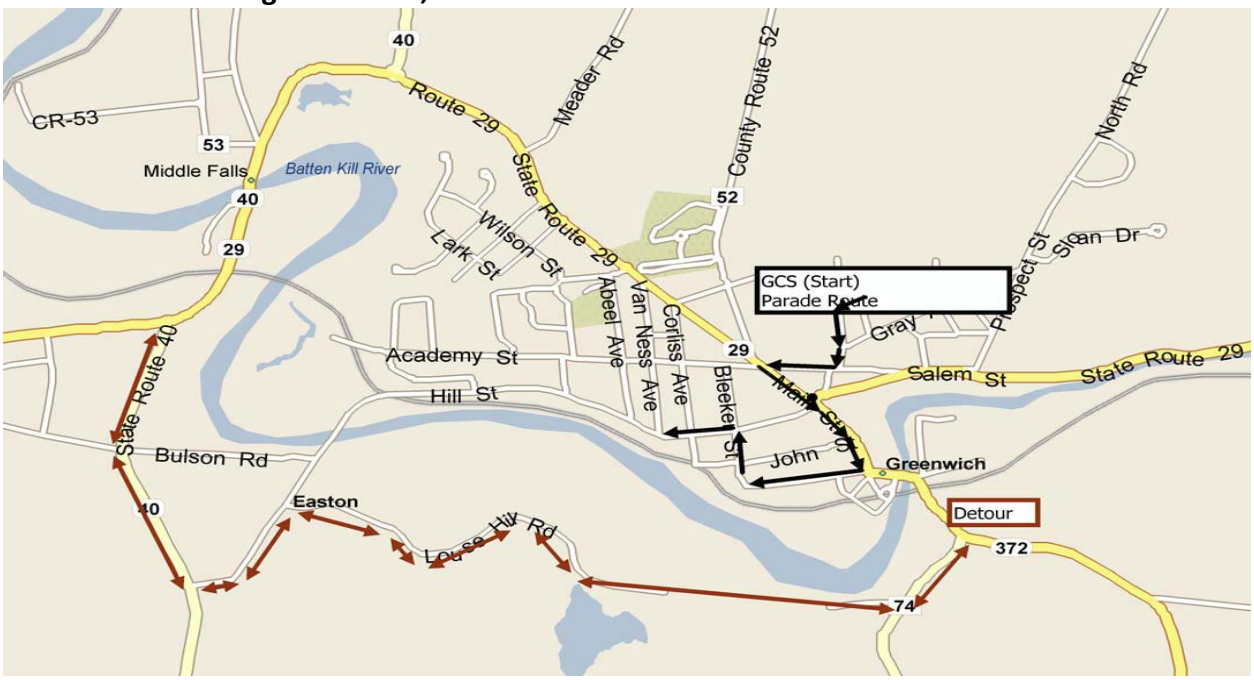
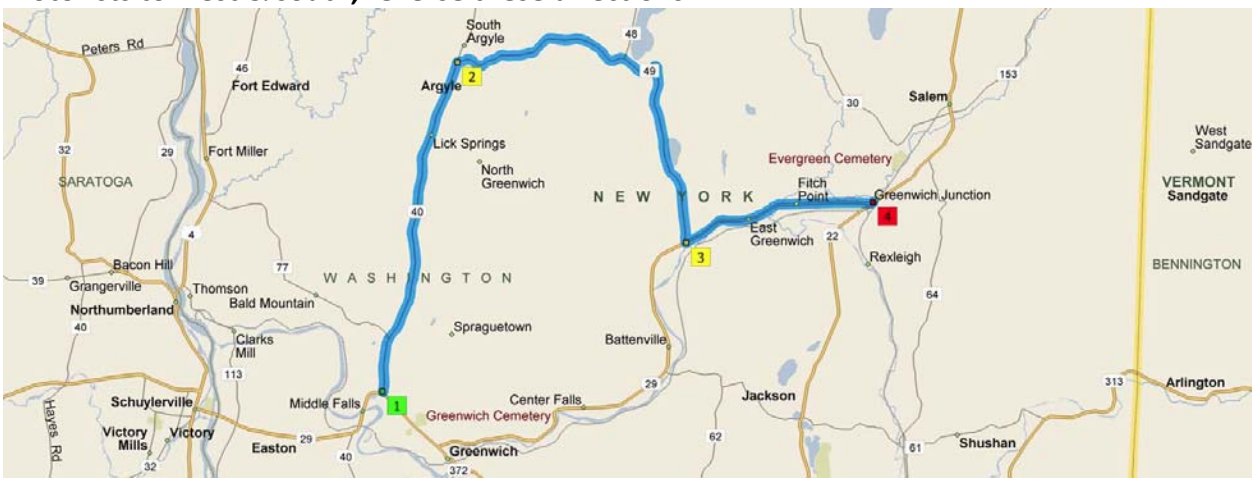
November 18, 2017 – Final Detour Public Notice

Greenwich, NY – Detour notice signs will be posted on the affected roads a week in advance to give travelers time to make alternate travel plans for the evening of Saturday, November 18, 2017 from 5:00 PM to 9:30 PM. Parade organizers appreciate the cooperation and understanding of all travelers and hope that any inconvenience is minimal.

Motorists to Cambridge, Jackson, Easton and southern Vermont will be detoured via NY State Route 40 South to Hegeman Bridge Road. Turn right onto Louse Hill Road to the end, and then turn left onto County Route 74. At the end of County Route 74 turn right onto NY State Route 372 East.
Motorists to Saratoga and west, reverse these directions.



Motorists to Vermont, Salem and points north should consider using NY State Route 40 North to County Route 49 to NY State Route 29 in East Greenwich.
Motorists to west & south, reverse these directions.



Local residents are encouraged to carpool or walk to the parade route. Due to the size of the event and for reasons of public safety, parking will be prohibited along Main Street from Academy Street to Washington Street, BOTH sides of Hill Street from Main Street to VanNess Avenue, all of Washington Street, John Street, and Church Street and at certain corners and sections along the parade route. Bleecker Street will also be no parking from Washington Street to Hill Street.
